

What I Need to Know

- Volunteers and the general public are able to access information on the Rural Fire Service website including information on:
 - the latest fire bans/restrictions
 - the latest news
 - current bushfires
 - weather
 - hotspot maps
 - obtaining a Permit to Burn
 - joining a Rural Fire Brigade
 - bushfire safety
 - building in a bushfire prone area
 - various publications.

How I do it

- To access the Rural Fire Service website go to www.ruralfire.qld.gov.au

Reference Materials

Other Useful Websites

- AgForce: www.agforcequeensland.org.au
- Australasian Fire Authorities Council: www.afac.com.au
- Australian Institute of Emergency Services: www.aies.net.au
- Bureau of Meteorology: www.bom.gov.au
- Bushfire CRC: www.bushfirecrc.com
- Climate Information for Rural Australia: www.longpaddock.qld.gov.au
- Council of Australian Governments (COAG) Bushfire Inquiry: www.coagbushfireinquiry.gov.au
- CSIRO Bushfire Behaviour and Management: www.ffp.csiro.au/nfm/fbm
- Emergency Management Australia: www.ema.gov.au
- Natural Disaster Mitigation Program: www.dotrs.gov.au/naturaldisasters
- North Australian Fire Information: www.firenorth.org.au
- Sentinal Hotspots: www.sentinal.csiro.au
- Southeast Queensland Fire and Biodiversity Consortium: www.gu.edu.au/school/asc/fire2
- Tropical Savannas CRC: www.savanna.cdu.edu.au
- Vegetation management and bioregions: www.nrm.qld.gov.au/vegetation